

Join the AES in L.A.

The 137th AES Convention is gearing up to take place October 9-12 at the Los Angeles Convention Center, located in the revitalized L.A. Live district. Returning to Los Angeles after nearly 12 years, the AES Convention will bring together the world's largest gathering of audio professionals. Attendees will be offered opportunities to hear from top audio industry figures while also sharing in the latest research and technology information through informative papers, tutorials, workshops and special events.

Hear Technologies @Hear_Back

It's nearly here! @AESorg Show starts in two weeks, and we can't wait to nerd out with fellow pro audio friends. We'll be at booth 336 along with all the Hear gear to try out hands on.

See you in NYC! #proaudio #audioengineer
